Re: United States of America v. Sergejs Logins (USA v. Mors 1:16-cr-00692-JMF)
S8 16 Cr. 692 (JMF)

Dear Judge Furman:

We represent Sergejs Logins in the above-referenced matter, and write to affirm Mr. Logins's desire for the sentencing to proceed as scheduled on March 30, 2021. We also respectfully request the Court permit the March 30 proceeding be conducted remotely. The Government is prepared to move forward with sentencing, and does not object to the proceedings being held remotely. Mr. Logins waives his right to an in-person appearance.

Mr. Logins intends to seek a time-served sentence, and the record here reflects that such a sentence is a possibility. Accordingly, any delay resulting from an in-person proceeding or an adjournment could unnecessarily subject Mr. Logins to further detention and fails to serve the ends of justice. As Mr. Logins is currently detained at the MDC (register number: 86559-054), he would be required to quarantine following an in-court appearance. A remote proceeding would allow Mr. Logins to avoid the quarantine process and any negative psychological side-effects that may result.

In the event that the proceeding needs to be held at a different time, all counsel are available anytime during the week of March 30, 2021 except for Tuesday from 8:00 AM to 2:00 PM and Wednesday from 4:00 PM to 5:30 PM. We thank the Court for its consideration of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Michael W. Martin

Sentencing will be conducted remotely and is ADJOURNED to April 1, 2021, at 9 a.m. (assuming that the Court's request for that videoconference slot is granted). SO ORDERED.
